

Lorraine DiDomenic,

Lorraine Born June 5, 1926 in Joliet, Illinois, passed away on November 16, 2013 of natural causes. She was preceded in death by her husband, Sam DiDomenic, and is survived by her daughters, Chris Rodigheiro, Cathy Johnson and Lisa Stablein; grandchildren, Brie, Tyler, Dane, Chase, Eric and Sam, and great-grandchild, Collins. Lorraine graduated from nursing school prior to her marriage and retired from St. Joseph's in Orange, CA after a successful 30 year career in nursing. Lorraine loved camping with the family and later in retirement with a camping club. She was devoted to the Catholic church and volunteered at the thrift shop. Lorraine was known by her friends and family as a loving mother and wife, renowned for her culinary skills and ability to make the neighborhood's best desserts (German chocolate cake and pumpkin bars) and respected as an accomplished green thumb. Her caring, loving, spunky personality will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
